

Bumblebird

Autumn sown option

Target: Farmland Birds & Pollinators

Scheme: Countryside Stewardship & CFE Voluntary Measures

Area: In Field

Sowing period: Summer/Autumn

An autumn sown option.

Bumblebird is beneficial to bumblebees, solitary bees, butterflies and hoverflies, as well as farmland birds.

Suitable for Countryside Stewardship Schemes.

Countryside Stewardship Option – AB16

Mixture Formulation:

- Winter Triticale
- Winter Barley
- Oilseed Radish

- Crimson Clover
- Birdsfood Trefoil
- Gold of Pleasure
- Kale
- Vetch
- Common Knapweed
- Rough Hawkbit
- Ox-eye Daisy

Strengths

- Autumn sown option
- Provides small seeds for Tree Sparrows and Corn Buntings
- Will supply pollen and nectar flowers in early summer
- Beneficial to bumblebees, solitary bees, butterflies and hoverflies
- Can be used to meet EFA requirements

Technical Information

Supplied in 10 kilo units.

